Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate | Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate

THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE SUPER PHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the greatest reputation of any Fertilizer ever sold in the United States,—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and that cost 100 per cent less, in order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufactures of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the great impositions, now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that formerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L. & R. with the above cut, which has been duly patented. Next season each sack will contain precisely the same Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade mark and the words will be printed on the back of each sack with the analysis. We refer to all farmers who have used the STAR as to the reputation and value of the article as a Fertilizer.

FORMERLY THE STAR AMMONIATED

SOLUBLE

——Have you heard from Indiana?

——St. John's Society meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the usual place ——Revenue collections in this collection district amounted to $574,80 yesterday.

——There's enough excitement ahead. The fair next week and then soon afterwards the November elections.

——Many people of both parties took their little "smiles" night before last but the Democrats did most of the smiling yesterday.

——Three huudred bales of cotton were shipped from this city yesterday over the North Carolina Railroad to New York via Morehead city.

——A lady lost a three stem light hair switch day before yesterday on Newbern Avenue or Hillsboro street. The finder will please leave it at this office.

——Light docket at the Mayor's Court yesterday—only one case: Richard Crocket, colored, drunk and disorderly. He got off by handing over $5 in the shape of a fine and $2,25 costs.

——Cotton was moving yesterday at a wonderful rate. There was a constant stream of wagons from 4 o'clock in the afternoon until after dark between the cotton yard and the Raleigh & Gaston depot.

Boyd's Star Company.

This dramatic troupe appear at Tucker Hall Monday evening, and will remain during the week. Miss Florence Richmond is the leading lady, and makes her first appearance on our boards in the role of "Julia" in Sheridan Knowles' remarkable and interesting play of "Hunchback." We know nothing of the merit of the troupe, but if they come up to the standard given them in the following from the Philadelphia Sunday Press they are worth going to see:

Boyd's Star Troupe of artists left Philadelphia yesterday for their annual tour through the South, where they are universal favorites, Miss Florence Richmond, the leading lady, being especially and deservedly ranked high in her profession. Their first stopping point will be Frederick, Maryland, where they will remain during fair week; from hence they go to Raleigh, N. C., and so continue their route through the entire South, arranging their visits so as to take in the cities and towns during the "Fair Week" in each place. We wish them success. Every member of the troupe is a talented artist. Our Southern friends have a rare treat in store for them in the visit of this company.

Yellow Fever Death at Greensboro.

Our telegrams of last night brought the intelligence that J. W. Lathrop, President of the Savannah, Ga., Cotton Exchange, died at Greensboro, in this State, yesterday, of yellow fever. He left Savannah a few days ago to see a dying son at Greensboro, and while there was taken with that fell disease, which ended fatally in a very short time. Mr. Lathrop brought the seeds of the disease in his system with him, and there is not the slightest danger of its spread in our fair little sister city.

A Suggestion.

If Maj. Winder, the accommodating Superintendent of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, could by running his trains faster, arrive a little earlier in the morning, it would be a great accommodation to the business men, especially the cotton merchants of the city. If it can be done we are sure Maj. Winder will not be slow to act, for he is always looking out for the interests of the community as well as those of his road. We do not presume to know Maj. W's business better than he, but think it no harm to make this suggestion.

HON. D. G. FOWLE.

His Speech Last Night—Metropolitan Hall Packed.

The scholar and orator, Hon. Daniel G. Fowle, spoke last night at Metropolitan Hall. The announcement of this fact in advance, had served to draw out an immense number of the people of Raleigh, and the building was packed to its utmost. Seats had been reserved in the front part of the hall for the ladies, and a great many of these availed themselves of the opportunity which had been afforded them of hearing one of the and one who, though a citizen of Raleigh, many of the ladies had never heard in the political arena.

Judge Fowle was escorted to the hall by a delegation of the Mechanic's and Working men's Club and of the Young Men's Tilden and Vance Club, of the city, headed by the brass band. Tar barrels were burning not only in front of the hall, but at other points on Fayetteville street. The crowd in and about the building was immense, and as the orator of the evening walked down the aisle, the house rang with the cheers of his enthusiastic admirers. The immediate escort of Judge Fowle accompanied him upon the stage, which was festooned with United States' flags, and after the band had finished its air, advanced and in terms graceful and strikingly beautiful, presented Judge Fowle. He said it would be preposterous to introduce here or anywhere else in North Carolina, the distinguished orator who was to address the people, and it was now his purpose only to present him. This he did in such a manner as to win for himself well-merited applause which had not subsided before it was again called forth by the appearance at the front of the stage, of himself. This gentleman had not proceeded more than three sentences in his speech, before he made a reference to Indiana which was greeted with the wildest demonstrations of applause. This was but the beginning of the end. The applause continued from this time to the end of the speech with intervals of only two or three moments, and there can be no doubt of the fact that if the audience had consulted its emotions, applause would have interrupted every sentence. In the narrow limits prescribed at the hour, it would be gross injustice to Judge Fowle to do more than mention

COL. T. C. FULLER,

HIS LEADING POINTS.

He spoke of his candidacy for elector, after which he spoke of his love of North Carolina, every part of which was dear to him by peculiar ties. He referred next to Tilden and Vance, and of our duty to elect them. Our country, and how can unity between the two sections be best restored, was the next point, and as an answer to this question the speaker argued the supremacy of the Democratic party. From this he passed to a scathing arraignment of the Republican party for its administration of governmental affairs in the nation and in North Carolina. He showed how the constitution had been trampled in the dust and the most sacred rights of American citizens utterly disregarded. The judicial murder of Mr. Surratt, the Shoffner bill and the Kirk war were cited, and each dwelt upon appropriately. The suspension of the writ of habeas corpus in this State was adveted to, and the act reprobated in withering invective.

JUDGE SETTLE'S RESPONSIBILITY

in this matter was properly characterized. After this Judge Fowle spoke of the Jones county case and the civil rights bill, and closed his speech proper by some very excellent advice to the negroes, telling them that while the Democrats did not court their votes, they intend to protect them in all their legal rights, allowing them to vote as they choose, but if they attempted intimidation upon any of their own race who desire to vote with the whites, the penalty must rest where it belongs.

Judge Fowle retired after a peroration which was overpowering in its brilliancy. Gathering all of he rose to the height of an unsurpassable eloquence, and carried his audience with him in one grand flight which was of itself enough to stamp upon the man the impress of greatness. From first to last it was a powerful effort. Displaying all the weapons of the accomplished debater, it united with its logic an impassioned eloquence which astonished even those who know the speaker best. It was a powerful and a wonderful speech, deep in argument and wonderful in word-painting, and we feel regretful that we are unable to convey to the reader any intelligent idea of it.

If you feel that everything goes wrong, if you want to get up early in the morning, if you have a pain in the stomach, take a dose of Dr. Bull's Vegetable Pills.

Superior Court.

Court met yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, Judge Watts on the bench.

These cases were disposed of:

State vs. Edward Chappell, assault and battery; verdict guilty and judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Major Horton, larceny; defendant entered a plea of guilty and judgment reserved. It will be remembered that this man Horton was one of the three negroes who recently escaped from our jail, and in so doing bruised up Deputy Sheriff Rogers. The trio was composed of Henderson Alford, who shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Passmore, Chas. Cotton and the said Major Horton. Passmore, it will be remembered, was killed the night of the day of the escape (Sunday) in the attempt to recapture Alford, and Horton was present at the killing, and was recaptured a few days afterwards in Harnett county.

State vs. Robert Page, Sanders Page and Joseph Sears, robbery; verdict not guilty. These negroes were accused of robbing, some time last winter, a young man by the name of Joseph Smith in House's Creek township, this county, of money found by him on the road. It was made to appear in the trial that Smith never found the money which he alleged to have been taken from him by these negroes in a few minutes after the finding; that on the night of the alleged robbery he came home very much under the influence of liquor and not in a condition to know much of what was transpiring around him.

William Cooper vs. Elizabeth Cooper, his wife; action for divorce. The divorce was sued for on the ground of fornication and adultery, and the jury found in favor of the plaintiff, and the divorce was granted.

The grand jury returned ten true bills, one of which was for burglary against John Jones and Nathan Pettiford, both negroes. These men in the early part of the past summer burglarized the premises of Matthew Snipes, in Oberlin, and took therefrom a number of articles. On the preliminary examination before Justice of Peace Magnin, the day after [illegible] through him most of the stolen articles were recovered.

Turner's North Carolina Almanac.

This publication is fresh from the press and a copy of it is before us. It is perhaps better this year than ever before. Aside from all usual astronomical calculations, farm and garden notes, receipts, and the fund of family reading usually found in almanacs, this publication contains an annual State record for 1875-'76, which is a little history of the State within itself. Then there is a financial and statistical department, facts and statistics of different towns, State necrology, North Carolina personals, &c. We have no hesitancy in warmly recommending this almanac. The publisher, Mr. J. H. Enniss, of this city, has expended a large amount of work upon it and it is eminently deserving of a large sale, as it is not only valuable for the year for which it is published, but also for reference. It contains a vast amount of valuable matter for the small sum of 10 cents.

Cold Water.

Theo. N. Ramsay, G. W. C. T., of the Independent Order of Good Templars, returned home last night via Norfolk, Va., from an extended temperance tour through Chowan, Perquimans, Pasquotank, Camden and Currituck counties. He reports the Order of Good Templars in a flourishing condition, in Eastern Carolina. For the past three weeks he has been lecturing to large audiences and initiating new members into the various subordinate lodges. Mr. Ramsay will resume his Wake county temperance campaign next week.

Oak City Pleasure Club.

The editorial corps of the NEWS return thanks for an invitation to attend a series of hops to be given by this club during the season of 1876-'77, commencing Friday night, October 20th, at the National Hotel. The hops given by this club have always been well attended, brilliant and most enjoyable affairs. The hop next Friday night promises to be unusually brilliant. Not only will the beauty and fashion of Raleigh assemble, but various sections of the State will be represented by the creme de la creme of their society.

General Repairs Needed.

We call the attention of our friend the Street Commissioner to the lately repaired crossing over Hillsboro street, at the corner of Dawson. There is just space enough between some of the rocks to admit a horse's foot, and the foot once fastened in the aperture the animal's leg would be sure to be broken. In addition to this, the rocks are rotten, and the heavy wagons which pass constantly over them are breaking them all to pieces. We are sure that the Street Commissioner need only to have his attention call to the matter.

NEWS FROM VANCE.

Hillsboro and Graham—Continued Ovations—Enthusiasm Still at Fever Heat—"Stay at Home, Tommy."

[Special Correspondence of the News]

HILLSBORO, Oct. 12, 1876.

I sent you a short letter this morning, but as the mail closed just as the discussion opened I could give you no account of it.

Gov. Vance commenced speaking at 11 a. m. As he arose cheer upon cheer from the large crowd of men, and waving of handkerchiefs from the ladies, greeted him. During the speaking the negro portion of the crowd kept up a and jargon, which was exceedingly unpleasant. When Gov. Vance was about half through his speech there was a fight between a Democratic and a Radical negro.

I heard a darkey say this morning that no negroes should vote the Democratic ticket. It seems as if the Wilmington idea was going to be carried out, i. e. to kill every negro who votes the Conservative ticket.

At the close of Gov. Vance's speech the band played, the men shouted and the ladies arose and waved their handkerchiefs. The ladies are imbued with as much or more enthusiasm than the men.

DURHAM

was well represented. Somebody's brain must be aching to-day from over exertion in studying up mottoes. Among the mottoes were the following:

"The honest colored man is respected and protected by Democratic Tilden and Vance clubs."

"Durham is for Vance against the world."

"No Ikes in our'n."

"That thing has played out—Kirk in 1870."

"Boss Shepherd, Babcock, Ike Young and Settle all belong to the same ring."

"Stay at home, Tommy."

"Ballots, not bullets."

"16 years of Radical stealing has ruined us."

"S. J. Tilden, Washington, D. C." Tom."

"Down with Revenue Ike"

There were about one hundred others. C.

GRAHAM, ALAMANCE CO., October 11, 1876.

Gov. Vance, accompanied by the Salem band, and Maj. Bingham with 50 cadets from Mebanesville, left Hillsboro at 6 P. M., last evening. On arriving at Mebanesville the Bingham cadets left us with three rousing cheers for Vance. On arriving at Graham depot a large crowd were gathered with made for the occasion out of small pieces of lightwood tied with wire, to poles about four feet long. The spectacle presented was picturesque.

The Salem Band headed the procession, and those bearing torches formed a marching square around the carriage containing

GOVERNOR VANCE.

Arriving at the hotel, (one mile from the depot,) where a crowd of about 1000 had gathered, the band played a lively piece and the crowd called for Vance. Although tired and hungry, he had to come out and make a short speech. The Governor was very happy in his remarks and put the already joyous crowd in good humor for the morrow. The Governor said that in every new county he went into it seemed as if the enthusiasm was higher than in the county he had just left. It reminded him of the newly married couple; they thought that every baby they saw was the handsomest one in the world.

On the route through town several houses and stores and the ladies standing on the porches, or in the yards, were waving handkerchiefs as the concourse passed.

This was truly a magnificent ovation, and it did great honor to Alamance. Quite a number of people had come in from 5 to 10 miles, and went home at night and returned this morning.

Judge Settle was received by a squad of about 30 or 40 dusky Republicans, each bearing a torch. This is the first procession that has greeted his wishing eyes since he was at Rockingham. C.

More Convicts.

Deputy Sheriff Geo. B. Colvert, of Beaufort county, brought to the penitentiary yesterday, the following named convicts, all colored: Stephen May, for larceny, 2 years; Richard Barden, larceny, 2 years; John Lee, alias Shepherd, 5 years, and Arthur Williamson, alias Isham Thompson, an escaped convict who was first sent from Wayne county. Since his escape from the penitentiary he has been captured and escaped twice—once in Beaufort and again in Craven—but being captured the third time, in Beaufort county, was finally secured and yesterday re-entered the pen.

The Chairman of our State Committee.

The Blue Ridge Blade in its recent issue pays Gen. W. R. Cox, the chairman of our State Executive Committee, a merited and in every way deserved compliment. We give it our hearty and unqualified endorsation. General Cox's course has been marked by all that distinguishes a patriot and upright statesman. The Blade says: "This distinguished son of North Carolina should be remembered by the Democrats of the State. Unlike many selfish politicians he did not become disgusted and indifferent to the interest of the people of the State because another gentleman defeated him for the nomination for Lieut-Governor. He is working nobly for the cause. A few days ago he went to New York and visited Bennett, of the Herald, and succeeded in making him retract the slander published on Governor Vance in regard to his (Vance's) speech at Shelby—a villainous lie concocted by the Republican Executive Committee at Washington. We repeat that we do not think Gen. Cox should be forgotten after going all the way to New York, when not a candidate himself, to correct a slander on our State standard-bearer."

Speaking of the County Candidates.

We have a communication from Middle Creek Township in reference to the speaking there yesterday. It took place at Wm. Utley's. A large crowd was present. Sidney M. Dunn, the capable and justly popular Sheriff, called the crowd to order, and it was first addressed by Mr. George H. Snow. He spoke for some time enlisting the undivided attention of his audience, who gave every evidence of appreciation. It was a strong, argumentative effort, plain in its statements of facts and issues, and such as pleased the people. Our correspondent says that in consequence of it, Middle Creek will do better at this election than ever before. R. W. Wynne followed, in a blustering speech, which created no impression except that of disgust. He tried to sing, but broke down at the end of Purnell spoke next and was followed by Mr. H. C. Olive. All of the Democrats acquitted themselves well. The sheriff and candidates will be at Franklin's, Swift Creek Township, to-day.

Parade and Target Shooting.

Yesterday afternoon the Raleigh Light Infantry, under Captain B. C. Manley, had their monthly parade. Over 30 muskets were out and a very handsome appearance was made.—A target shooting was also had near the old rock quarry, in order to make a selection of five of the ten who are to enter the lists to compete at the coming fair for the stand of colors offered as a prize by the State Agricultural Society in the grand State shooting match. The range was 200 yards and the score stood thus:

Lt. Leroy Bagley, 2½, [best shot,] Thomas Allen, 2¾; Charles Lumsden, 4; M. Hayes, 4½; George Smith, 7¾. The other five of the team will be chosen at the meeting next Monday evening.

Personal.

Col. William E. Anderson, President of the Citizens' National Bank, returned Thursday afternoon from a centennial trip.

Capt. Exline, of Lockville, spent the day in this city yesterday.

We learn that our distinguished fellow-townman, George V. Strong, Esq., will soon take the stump in the cause of honesty and reform.

Peter M. Hale, Esq., arrived yesday afternoon from New York. Mr. Hale, in conjunction with Col. W. L. Sanders, will soon be engaged in journalism in this city.

F. H. Busbee, Esq., left yesterday, for Concord, where he was to have addressed a mass meeting last night.

Gone from Us.

Young Simmons, the cotton buyer, has gone to Norfolk, where he will hold forth in the future, and there is a good deal of sadness in the city on account thereof. He was the beau of the city and the girls miss him; the cotton buyers esteemed him, the collar sellers doted on him, the landlord bet on him and his good qualities were the talk of the boys. Thus it is that the warmer the attachment the more surely will it be broken and thus is exemplified the sad fatality conveyed in those beautiful and pathetic lines:

"I never had a piece of bread,
Particularly wide,
But when it fell it hit the floor,
Upon the buttered side."

Grand Rally at Henderson.

There is to be a grand Democratic rally at Henderson, Granville county, on the 27th inst. All the clubs of Granville, Franklin and Warren have been invited, and an immense multitude of people is expected to be present. Hon. A. S. Merrimon and Col. T. C. Fuller have been invited and will be among the speakers on the occasion.

Our subscribers will greatly oblige us by giving prompt information of any delay in receiving their papers.

BLUE JEANS is the popular wear.

DOWN with your rooster, Mr. Constitution!

THE constitution is safe. A genuine union of the States is now assured.

THE constitutional party of the country has achieved a crowning victory; and the Republic is saved.

TALK no more of a solid North against a solid South. A half-million of Northern freemen on Tuesday, recorded their votes against the enemies of the Southern States.

THE New York Tribune admits that the Republicans are "necessarily disheartened" by the result in Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia. They were very confident of carrying Indiana, and increasing their majority in Ohio.

LET our friends bear in mind that at the last general election in this State, the total Democratic vote for Congressmen was 109,000. The highest Republican vote ever cast in the State was 98,000. Thus it appears that we had two years ago, a majority of 11,000. But it is further to be remembered—and the fact must be admitted—that the Democratic party has been growing stronger, day by day, ever since the last election, while the Republican party has been growing weaker and weaker. North Carolina will give Tilden and Vance a majority of from 15,000 to 20,000. Mark the prediction!

TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS—EFFECT ON THE PRESIDENTIAL CANVASS.

In every contest since the war over the Presidency the Democrats have fought a losing battle. Invariably a large proportion of our party have gone into the conflicts disheartened from the very start, knowing the tremendous odds against us. This lack of buoyant hope has been a serious drawback, always, and has prevented our polling our full vote. But now the face of matters has changed. The gods at last are smiling upon us. The achievements of the Democrats in Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia have inspired our friends with that confidence which is one of the strongest assurances of success. A general feeling prevails among the Democrats to-day in all parts of the country, that a grand national triumph is within our grasp.

Calculations on election results are proverbially unreliable; but there are some election contests which may be reduced before hand to a mathematical certainty. This is the case with the coming election. A reference to certain admitted facts and conceded results, must demonstrate that Gov. Tilden's chances now are of the brightest character.

The total electoral vote being 369, the successful candidate must receive 185 votes in the electoral college. Of the Southern States the following are absolutely certain for Tilden: Delaware, 3; Maryland, 8; Virginia, 11; West Virginia, 5; North Carolina, 10; Georgia, 11; Florida, 4; Alabama, 10; Mississippi, 8; Louisiana, 8; Kentucky, 12; Tennessee, 12; Missouri, 15; Arkansas, 6; Texas, 8. In all 131 votes, and 54 less than the number required to elect.

The following States are certain to go for Hayes: Illinois 21; Iowa 11; Kansas 5; Maine 7; Massachusetts 13; Michigan 11; Minnesota 5; Neoraska 3; Nevada 3; New Hampshire 5; Ohio 22; Pennsylvania 29; Rhode Island 4; Vermont 5. In all 144 votes, 13 more than Governor Tilden and 41 less than the number required to elect.

There would in that case remain the following States, from whose electoral vote each party would seek enough for a majority: South Carolina 7; Colorado 3; Wisconsin 10; California 6; INDIANA 15; New Jersey 9; New York 35; Oregon 3; Connecticut 6. In all 94 electoral votes.

From these doubtful States we may now take Indiana and add it to Mr. Tilden's vote, giving him 146 votes in the electoral college; two more than Gov. Hayes and 40 less than the number required to elect. To make up this number Tilden would ful states, New York and Connecticut 41 votes, or New York and New Jersey 44; or New York and California 41; or New York and Wisconsin 45; or New York and South Carolina 42. Should New York go against him he would have to carry every other doubtful State, to wit: South Carolina, Wisconsin, California, New Jersey, Oregon and Connecticut.

Then it will be seen that the whole fight turns now upon New York as the grand pivotal point. The party that carries that state will win beyond all question. We may therefore look for a concentration of the forces of both sides in New York State.

A GOOD MOVE—MECHANICS TO THE FRONT.

The organization of a Mechanics' and Workingmen's Tilden and Vance Club, in this city, Thursday night, is one of the best moves of the campaign. We only regret that the movement did not begin earlier, so that the good example could have been followed in every part of the State where the mechanics are in strong force.

No part of the population is more deeply interested in honest and economical government than the working men of our towns and cities. They feel more keenly than any other class, perhaps, the benefits of good government and the evils of bad; for they have, in addition to general taxes, the burden of town tax to bear. When the tax gatherer fetters them, it is with a triple chain. What ever depresses the business of the country or disturbs the public peace, or checks the growth of cities and towns, falls heavily upon the Mechanics. They feel it in high taxes, decreased wages and lack of work—contractors and builders, as well as those who shove the plane or lay the brick—the skilled artisan as well as the laborer, the proprietors, master mechanics, and bosses as well as those who work under them. They cannot have prosperity and happiness without wise, beneficent laws and a just administration of public affairs.

We are glad to see the mechanics of Raleigh organizing their efforts in the cause of reform, and moving forward solidly to the support of Tilden and Vance. They will exercise a large influence in this community and set a bright example of patriotism to their brethren throughout the State. The citizens of Raleigh may be proud of the two Democratic clubs now at work in our midst, and when the conflict is over and the victory won, they will accord them the full meed of praise which they deserve.

WHO will step up now and take the place made vacant on the Republican Legislative ticket for this county, by the resignation of Mr. J. P. H. Adams? Don't all speak at once.

REPUBLICAN DISAPPOINTMENT.

THE Republicans are deeply disappointed at the result of Tuesdays' elections. They show it in their long faces. Heretofore these States have been almost invariably Republican. Ohio has always voted for the Presidential nominees of that party. Indiana supported BUCHANAN in 1856, but has never failed since that time to vote for the Republican candidates. West Virginia was admitted to the Union in 1862, and from that period has steadily voted for the Republican nominees for President.

Surveying the field in the light of these facts, the Republicans ought to have carried it in all three of these States. They confidently looked for success. For nearly two months ago the Republican National Committee issued a circular wherein they claimed that these States were sure to go for their party in the October elections, and for HAYES and WHEELER in November; and for a good while their campaign was conducted on this assumption. They felt that they must carry two of the three States which voted Tuesday, or concede the chances of electing the next President to the Democrats. Now they have failed, where are they?

PERU SETTLE—THE SALARY QUESTION.

The Republicans have denied in vehement terms that Judge Settle, while Minister to Peru, drew a salary for a longer time than he was in service. We have insisted that he did. Now we have undeniable proof of the fact; as the following editorial from the New York Tribune of August 1872, will show:

Judge Settle, President of the Renomination Convention and repudiated candidate for Congress in North Carolina, made the following statement in a recent address at Greensboro: 'For the information of Greeley's paper and other lesser lights, I can inform them that the law prohibits the payment of more than one month's salary to a foreign minister before reaching his place of destination. I will further inform them that I did go to Peru, and only drew my salary for the time I was in service.' It may not be much of a satisfaction to the country to know that Mr. Settle did fulfil the functions of a Foreign Minister; but we have caused an examination of his case to be made at the Fifth Auditor's office, and the result so well illustrates Mr. Settle's chronic inability to tell the truth that we propose to publish it.

In the first place it is not true that the law prohibits the payment of more than one month's salary to a minister before reaching his destination; in the second place it is not true that Mr. Settle only drew his salary for the time he was in service. A minister is allowed one month to obtain instructions, make preparations, &c. Mr. Settle took that, and another month (more or less) besides, to make the journey. He was appointed time 'till March 20th, 1871, namely, $883 33. He started for Lima April 10th, and drew pay June 30 for two months and twenty days, namely, $2,202 75. He drew pay again September 30th, $2,500. On the 19th of December he gave himself sixty day's leave of absence and came home, although he was not entitled to leave until he had served for a year at his post. When the sixty days expired, he drew pay up to that date, Feb. 19th, 1872, amounting to $3,873,63 and resigned.

Thus we see that Mr. Settle remained at Lima less than six months and a half, allowing thirty days for the journey out and that he received for that service $9,459 71, or at the rate of about $18,000 a year, the pay of the Lima mission being fixed by law at $10,000. That is what Mr. Settle calls drawing his salary for the time he was in service."

THE demonstrations over Gov. Vance at Oxford, Roxboro, Hillsboro, and Graham within the past few days, afford fresh and abundant evidence of the fact that the tide of popular enthusiasm is all in his favor. There were grand ovations in his honor wherever he went; while the marks of respect shown his competitor were meagre and paltry in the extreme. For instance, companies of horsemen, processions of citizens, bands of music, bushels of boquets and bevies of ladies, testified the admiration and esteem in which Gov. Vance is held by the glorious people of Orange and Granville, and Person, and Alamance, with its historic fields; while the only attention received by Judge Settle came from a few office-holders and negroes. Even the colored people manifest little or no enthusiasm for their candidate. The contrast is most marked; and is certainly deeply significant. It foreshadows one of the most splendid triumphs ever achieved by the Democrats of this or any other State.

THE Republicans ordered the Associated Press Agent at Indianapolis to compare Tuesday's vote with the vote of 1874, although the last gubernatorial election was in 1872, when a vote of 377,000 was polled, the Democrats electing Hendricks by a majority of 1,148. The Democrats, in 1874, carried the State, in a vote of 347,000, by 17,000, there lacking about 20,000 of a full vote. It is evident that the proper comparison is that made with the last gubernatorial election in 1872. The Republicans used the Associated Press in the vain hope of cutting down Democratic gains by the unfair comparrison with the vote of 1874.

THREE of the great War-Governors of the North—Curtin, of Pennsylvania; Parker, of New Jersey; and Sprague, of Rhode Island, are in line for Tilden and Reform. Zebulon B. Vance is there, too. Meantime, Blaine, Settle and others, who stayed at home and sent substitutes or sought safety in bomb-proof offices, are reviving the memories of the scenes in which they did not dare take a part.

PERSONAL.

Charles Francis Adams is worth $1,000 000, mostly invested in Boston real estate.

Princess Margherita, of Itlay, is a poet and has written some pretty verses on Venice.

Ex-Secretary McCulloch rates Bismarck as the ablest statesman of this or any other age.

Minister Washburne will not come home to visit the Centennial. He is now traveling in Switzerland with his family.

The Princess Salm-Salm has taken for a second husband a tall English ex-Secretary of Legation, the younger son of a lord. A Prusian ambassador attended the wedding breakfast, the Emperor William sent a congratulatory telegram, and a choice band of Jenkinses fluttered round the scene.

A missionary from the English Good Templars, the Rev. H. W. Parsons, will sail for the Southern States shortly with the object of organizing Good Templar lodges among the colored people, who were formally excluded from the order by the white Good Templars on account of color.

It is reported at Paris that Don Carlos is about to start a newspaper there, which is to be called La Pensee Catholique. Its leading articles are to be printed in French, Italian and Spanish, and it will advocate the union of the Latin races under on infallible Pope and the Bourbon princes.

Mrs. Nott, mother of one of the first missionaries of the American board, is now living in Hartford at a very advanced age, and in the full possession of her faculties, though the infirmities of age prevented her attending the meetings of the American board. One of her sons is Samuel Nott President of the Hartford, Providence and Fishkill railroad.

A recent discovery in the state archives of New Jersey has cleared the memory of Joseph Read, General Washington's Adjutant-General, from the charge of having sought the protection of the enemy just before the battle of Trenton by showing that the Read who did so was "Colonel Charles Read, of one of the Burlington battalions."

Don Carlos has been interviewed by a Paris journalist. He said that he only intended remaining a few weeks in Paris. Don Carlos added that he had formally declared to the French Government that he would not re-enter Spain at the cost of another civil war. He intends proceeding to Belgium or Switzerland, leaving his wife and children in Paris.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Hon. Lucius Robinson, Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, will take no part in the canvass, being unwilling to advocate his own election, besides having the business of his office to attend to.

The New York Times latest charge against Gov. Tilden throws all previous ones into the the shade. It accuses him of recommending his party in New York to "put up respectable local nominations for county and State officers.."

In the Connecticut town elections a year ago the Democrats had 177 towns, the Republicans 65, and 23 were divided. Returns from all the towns have now been received, and show that the Democrats have gained fourteen towns, and the Republicanf nine towns. Net Democratic gain of five towns over last fall's elections,

Yes indeed! It is quite important for Hayes to carry the States of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut in order to insure his election, but although he fully recognizes this importance, and is therefore grateful to the American Alliance for helping him, he will fall about 75,000 short in the first named, 12 500 in the second and 8,000 in the last named State.

During the six years that the Republicans had control of the State of Georgia they piled up the State taxes over fifty millions of dollars! And that, too, at a time when the people were impoverished from a long and exhaustive struggle. No wonder that Georgia gives big majorities against Republicanism. To the people of that State Republicanism is but another name for public robbery.

Judge Doolittle was interrupted the other night while making a speech in Chicago by some one yelling out, "How about the rebel debt?" "The rebel debt," said the judge, "why, sir, those bonds read on their face, payable two years after the United States government recognizes the Confederacy; 'now when will they fall due?" Here some one in the crowd shouted out "never." "No," said Doolittle, "it will be two years after never.

It seems that Grant, in order to set an example to his faithful office-holders, has put his name down for $1,000, or two per cent. of his salary, as his assessment toward paying the expenses of the campaign for Republican civil service reform. It is easy for Grant to do this, though it is hard for the office-holders to sign the paper, for they will have to pay Zach. Chandler or go, while Grant has no idea of paying, and he is sure of his Presidential "emoluments" until the 4th of next March. We wonder if Hayes has paid in his assessment.

The real meaning of Chamberlain's proclamation is that his party in South Carolina has tumbled to pieces. The leaders of Grantism there have been fighting for spoils pretty vigorously since 1868, and the result is a bountiful crop of factions within the party. Some of the fueds are irreconcilable, and all of them are demoralizing. Chamberlain's triple record as a machine politician, as a sham reformer, and now as the ally of Paterson and Eliott, weakens him with all classes of Republicans in the State.

A SLAVEHOLDER.

Morgan, the Republican Candidate for Governor of New York.

The Rochester Democrat quotes the Rev. A. C. George, D. D., who recently made a Republican partisan speech at Geddes. The reverend gentleman is reported as taking for his text the words "Vote as you pray," and as saying that he ever prayed that the domain of slavery might be overthrown; and that "slavery was not dead—its spirit still lives."

The Albany Argus gives prominence to the following evidence:

Q. What is your name?
A. Isador Morales.
Q Where do you live?
A. Havana, Cuba.
Q. Are you a slaveholder?
A. I am.
Q. How many slaves have you?
A. Over seven hundred.
Q. When they escape how do you recover them?
A. We use blood hounds, which are very ferocious, and seize their victims by the throat and tear them to pieces.
Q Then you lose your slave, any way?
A. Yes; but we frighten and intimidate the others so but few run away.
Q. Do you mark your slaves in any way?
A. Yes; the initials of the owners are branded with red-hot iron on the shoulder of the slave.
Q Do you know of any one in New York, owning slaves in the West Indies?
Q. Yes; E D. Morgan, Republican Candidate for Governor, owns a number, who are branded on the left shoulders, E. D. M.
Q. How did Morgan become possessed of these slaves?
A. By foreclosing upon planters who owed him large sums of money, and owing to the war in Cuba were not able to pay; and so Morgan took possession of both plantation, slaves, crops and all.
Q Is Morgan now running these plantations?
A. Yes, and working the slaves as I understand, at a very fair profit; in fact, making a good deal of money out of them.

Here is a spectacle for the contemplation of the Rev. A. C. George, D. D., and those who, like him, "vote as they pray," and pray that the demon of slavery may be overthrown!

E. D. Morgan, the Republican candidate for Governor, is not the only citizen of the United States who, by his dealings as a merchant with slaveholders in the West Indies, has become possessed of, and now owns and works slaves there. Indeed, so great is the number of our citizens who are thus slaveholders that President Grant made them a subject of reprobation in one of his first messages to Congress, which we quote as follows: "I desire to direct your attention to the fact that citizens of the United States, or persons claiming to be citizens of the United States, are large holders in foreign lands of this species of property, [slaves,] forbidden by the fundamental law of their alleged country. I recommend to Congress to provide by stringent legislation a suitable remedy against the holding, offering or dealing in slaves, either as owners, heirs, traders, or mortgagors, by citizens of the United States." Let us pray, brethren, with Rev. A. C. George, D. D., and vote as we pray against the slaveholder E. D. Morgan, who has been nominated by the Republican party for Governor of the State of New York.

The Crowning Infamy Unearthed.

[Monroe Enquirer.]

We wish every man in all the broad land, every lover of peace and order, every patriotic son of North Carolina, of every party, race and color, to read carefully the card of Rev. C. T. Bailey, in regard to the "Kirk and Holden war." Now honest Republicans, this is no "Democratic lie," trumped up for political purposes. It is the plain unvarnished and terrible truth upon the word and honor of a leading Baptist Minister, whose character is unimpeached and unimpeachable—a man whose standing, position and interest make him incapable of lying in this instance. We have it from his own lips that his card, as it appears, is genuine and true. Rev. Mr. Bailey was here in attendance upon the Baptist Association last week, and we called upon him, and although he refused to be interviewed on the matter or be drawn into political affairs, yet when asked, he distinctly and emphatically stated that the card was true and genuine. Of course Gov. Holden denies the charges, but whom shall we believe?

Mr. Bailey is an entirely disinterested party in the matter, and the information slipped out in a private conversation. Gov. Holden is vitally interested, for it involves the ruin of himself and his party. Mr. Bailey is a divine of the highest standing in the church. Gov. Holden, to say the least and best of him, is a partisan politician. Before this came to light, all the facts pointed in the direction of his guilt, and threw suspicion upon him and his friends.—Now, the whole thing stands revealed and explained. Then, honorable, law-abiding, peace-loving Republicans, look and see where you stand to day,—the political companions of foul, cold-blooded murderers and red handed cut-throats; for the blood of the murdered man, Stephens, is not only upon the skirts of W. W. Holden, but of all the Republican leaders. As you will see from the card, the terrible deed was not planned and executed by W. W. Holden alone, but it was the cool, deliberate, hellish purpose and policy of the Republican leaders in order to make political capital. When we would attempt to express our feelings and sentiments concerning this crowning piece of infamy, words and utterance fail us. Think of it, men of North Carolina! think of it soberly, Democrats and Republicans! Holden's party leaders deliberately planning and inaugurating a cruel, bloody war upon the innocent, peaceable citizens of the State, and sacrificing an innocent man of their own party that they might make capital of it—and that W. W. Holden might be appointed Secretary of the Interior

O, my people and my countrymen, how long! how long! will you continue to be blinded by the passions and party prejudices of the past that is forever gone, and live unmindful of the mighty living issues of the present!

The Solid South.

[N. Y. Sun.]

The most silly, preposterous, and wicked cry raised during this campaign is that of the Republicans about the solid South. Thus Jay Gould's young editor lifts up his voice and wails: "A solid South, what does it mean? Why does it alarm all thoughtful men?" And Mr. Geo. William Curtis writes that a united South requires that the North should likewise be united to put the South down.

What is this solid South? For what is it united? Has it any bad or doubtful object? Not at all. It is solid only against public robbery such as never was committed upon any other people in the world. It is only united against a system of State Governments more greedy and profligate, and plundering the people upon a grander scale than any other governments, savage or civilized, that ever existed on earth; and it is solid and united against the present national administration, because it is likewise greedy, profligate, and larcenous. This is the whole of it. The only purpose for which the South is united is to escape from these governments, and from the total and almost indescribable ruin they cause. Aside from this, there is not one single object for which the South can be called united and solid. The only aim which the Southern States have in view in their support of Mr. Tilden is to redeem themselves from this horrible system from the utter devastation which its continuance will certainly produce, and from the moral, social, and political calamities which would follow the election of Hayes, and the perpetuation of this immense organization of public extortion and robbery.

There is no more reason for any alarm when the South is united in such a cause than there was when the people of New York, men of all classes, Democrats, Republicans, and Independents, were united for the overthrow of Tweed and Connolly. The crimes of that band of public plunderers were as nothing compared to the crimes committed by the Republican State Governments of the South and by the Republican Administration at Washington; and the drivel of Mr. Curtis and of the Tribune is even more contemptible than would have been here in New York in 1871 a wailing outcry of alarm at the unity of the people for the suppression of Tweed and his confederates.

Thank God that the South is thus united for the stoppage of public plunder and the restoration of honest government. Let us hope that on the 7th of November the people of the North will prove themselves equally united in the same good cause.

A Republican Judge on Taft's Order.

At the October term of the Court of Common Pleas of York county, S. C., Judge Mackey, who is one of the most prominent Republicans in that State, in charging the grand jury, characterized the recent order of Attorney-General Taft, in regard to the powers of United States marshals and their deputies, as "the most formidable and audacious act of political intimation at present within the knowledge of the court," and declared that "the judge of a court who permitted the provisions of that order to be enforced in his circuit would be false to his duty." Judge Mackey further said that United States marshals and deputy marshals in his judicial circuit would not be permitted to carry ont the provisions of the order of the Attorney-General to the extent of disregarding the duly issued processes of the State courts, and should they offer resistance to the judicial authority adequate force would be invoked to maintain that authority, and the court would assume the responsibility.

The last Republican House of Representatives appropriated $15,500,000 in excess of the estimates of the amounts needed by the respective Departments to carry on the Government. As a contrast to this, the first Democratic House of Representatives has appropriated $40,000 000 less than the estimates. The difference in favor of Democratic economy and retrenchment is therefore $55,500,000.

[From the Philadelphia Presbyterian]

From the World's Dispensary Printing Office and Bindery, Buffalo, N. Y., we have received "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in plain English; or, Medicine Simplified," by R. V. Pierce M. D., Counselor-in-chief of the Board of Physicians and Surgeons at the World's Dispensary. Whoever helps humanity in its struggle with its inherent weaknesses and diseases, to bear or cure, is its benefactor. Ignorance is not only of itself a cause of disease and mortality, but it is the enemy of every effort to cure or mitigate. Nothing will so speedily remove this cause as knowledge (an elementary one at least) of the diseases to which we are heir, as well as those superinduced by our own imprudence. Dr. Pierce has rendered, in our judgment, a benefactor's service, both to the afflicted and to the profession, in his diagnosis of the diseases treated of, and in the presentation of the philosophic principles involved in their cause and removal. He is sparing of remedies, and usually prescribes such as are safe in unskilled hands. As a book merely of abstract knowledge, it is exceedingly readable and interesting, especially the following subjects:—Cerebral Physiology, Human Temperaments, Pseudo-Hygiene, the Nursing of the Sick, Sleep, Food, Ventilation, etc. In one chapter on another subject, so delicate in its nature that it is shut up beyond the domain of warning to all but physicians, so accursed in its results in modern society, he is most explicit, and alike true to God, to virtue, to life, and to society, shows the truth as presented in the teachings of Scripture,—that life begins with conception,—with great force, to which is added faithful warnings.

Price of the Medical Adviser $1.50, sent post-paid. Address the author at Buffalo, N. Y.

THE EASTERN COMPLICATION.

Diplomats Still at Work--Movements of Troops--The Porte on the Armistice--Knock Away Still the Word.

LONDON, Oct. 13.--The chief topic of war correspondents is Russia's attitude.

A Reuter telegram from St. Petersburg says that it is stated that the Czar is preparing another autograph letter to Francis Joseph.

The Times Vienna dispatch says that it is the Porte's desire to stop the influx of foreign soldiers into Servia and that other provinces shall not be agitated during the amistice. It is stated that this will not be a condition, but is only a wish.

The Times Berlin dispatch says that the old report is revived that the Czar thinks of abdicating if war is decided upon. Russian residents of Austria and Germany liable to serve in the army have been ordered home.

The Black Sea squadron is ready to carry 96,000 men from the northern to the western shore of that sea. Responding to Russia's request to co-operate the Prussian government is sending troops to the Turkish frontier. The reserve is being called out in some of the western provinces of Russia. Troops have been moved toward the northern and eastern frontier of Galicia. Twenty thousand horses have been placed on a war footing in Russia and Poland. These preparations it is believed are intended to force Austria and Turkey to concede the independence of the Southern Slavonians without war.

The Daily News Belgrade dispatch says that the proposal of Turkey goes to St. Petersburg and thence to Leveadia. The Russian reply will go to St. Petersburg and London. Hence ten days must elapse before definite action can be taken. During that time military events may change the entire situation.

The Times correspondent at Belgrade says that he does not anticipate a favorable reception of the Turkey's proposition for an armistice.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—A Reuters telegram from Constantinople states that an additional note specifying conditions on which the Porte grants the armistice, which were published this morning, the Porte yesterday delivered to the Ambassador. The note justifies its refusal to entertain the peace conditions submitted to it by the great powers, especially the autonomy proposed for Bosnia and Herzegovina.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The Times dispatch from Barcelona announces that 30,000 soldiers will, if necessary, follow the 15,000 which start for Cuba on the 20th. Gen. Quesada has ordered the municipalties in the Basque provinces to immediately destroy all the fortifications not occupied by Spanish troops.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Senator Patterson with some persons claiming to be from South Carolina, called on General Sherman, representing to him that more troops were necessary to secure a peaceful election in that State. Persons purporting to be from Mississippi called on the Secretary of War urging alike need of troops for that State. Secretary Cameron's reply has not transpired.

THE EASTERN WAR.

Armistice Rejected--Arrival of Russian Horses.

LONDON, Oct 13.—A Reuter from Belgrade dated the 9th says that a Servian cabinet council has decided not to accept the six months armisted determined upon by the Turkish extraordinary council last Tuesday because Servia could not maintain her present large army during the winter as she will also be obliged to support a large number of refugee families. It is stated that M. Rester's, the Foreign Minister, has telegraphed General Tchernayeff, telling him not to regard it as possible that so long an armistice can be accepted.

LOCAL MATTER.

Suspension of Meeting.

The revival which has been in progress at Edenton Street M. E. Church, for nearly four weeks past, was suspended night before last, until Sunday. This was not on account of any decrease of interest, but because of the fact that both pastor and people are well nigh exhausted, and because of the further fact that last night was the time for the fourth and last quarterly conference of the station. The meetings will be resumed to-morrow, and will no doubt extend into or through next week.

Celebration at Apex.

Apex, in this county, was all enthusiasm as the train passed there Thursday night. They had heard the news from Indiana, and a large number of people gathered at the depot and they had a big demonstration. Dr. Samuel Williams, the leading man of the place, was the prime mover in the matter, and they had a great jollification. A feature of the occasion was that everybody had a tin horn, which he was blowing with all his might and main.

Our Press Brethren.

We hereby issue to our brethren of the press, a general invitation to make their headquarters at the NEWS office while they are in the city next week. Rooms will be prepared for them on the fair grounds where they will make themselves at home, while on the grounds. Returning to the city, we will be glad to have them spend their leisure moments at the NEWS office, and assure them that the latch string hangs always on the outside.

Certificates Awarded.

The board of county examiners awarded two certificates yesterday to applicants who applied for them with the purpose of teaching in the public schools of the county. These were Mr. Jas. Champion, of Chalk Level, who received a second grade certificate, and Mr. Jas. P. Beck, of New Light, who received a first grade certificate.

The late Mrs. Nancy J. Tyson, of Greenville, Pitt county, had a policy for $10,000 on her life in the Ætna Life Insurance Co. W. H. Crow, the Manager and General Agent of the Co., has the $10,000 ready to pay over to the beneficiaries.

The history of the past three years, fresh in the mind of every man, adds strong emphasis to all that can be said of the importance of any man having a policy in the Ætna Co, which will prove to be an absolute security for the wants of the family. There is no investment at all to be compared with that of a Life Policy in a well managed and sound Company.

The assets of the Ætna are $23,000,000.00. and the surplus January 1st, was $3,586,660.37. 1t.

How to Grow Cheerful.

Disease is in a great many—perhaps the majority—of instances the underlying cause of mental depression. It will almost invariably be found, for instance that hypochondriacs are dyspeptics, bilious subjects, and all persons who have had any experience of such cases are aware that sufferers from diseases of the kidneys and bladder are especially subject to fits of despondency. The sure way to overcome depression is to try a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a cheering cordial which is peculiarly antagonistic to the "blues," as well as to the causes which produce them. This popular and efficacious corrective of a disordered condition of the system remedies the most obstinate cases of indigestion, biliousness and constipation, overcomes disorders of the urinary organs, purifies and enriches the blood, and restores vigor to the body as well as elasticity to the mind. oct 9
